2. Personal data will be: 1) processed in connection with your participation in the Conference, i.e. for the performance and settlement of the Agreement, 2) kept for the duration of the Agreement and then for the period of limitation of claims and until the completion of civil, enforcement, administrative proceedings and criminal data requiring data processing.

3. Your personal data will be processed for purposes related to the conclusion and performance of a contract pursuant to art. 6 par. 1 lit. b GDPR, and in order to fulfill legal obligations on the basis of generally applicable legal regulations, in particular pursuant to the Accounting Act on the basis of art. 6 par. 1 point c of GDPR, and to the extent that the provision of data is voluntary based on your consent of art. 6 par. 1 point and GDPR. The Administrator reserves the right, however, to store your data for the purpose of a legitimate interest consisting in a possible determination, pursuit of claims or defense against claims based on art. 6 par. 1 lit. f GDPR.

4. The recipient of your personal data will be: Organizers, casusBTL; home.pl and other entities cooperating as contractors in connection with the support of business operations, in particular in the areas of accounting, IT, consulting, legal and auditing services.

5. Your data will not be shared with other entities for commercial purposes.

6. Your personal data will be processed for the period necessary for the specific processing of data: duration of the contract, limitation period for claims and criminal offenses. The period of processing personal data may be extended each time for a period of limitation of claims, if the processing of personal data will be necessary to pursue any claims or defend against such claims. After this period, the data will be processed only to the extent and for the time required by law, including accounting regulations, if applicable. In the case of data processed on the basis of consent until withdrawal.

7. Within the limits of the law, you have the right to access your data and the right to rectify it, supplement incomplete data, delete (right to be forgotten), limit processing if: (a) you question the accuracy of personal data - for a period allowing the Administrator to check the accuracy of such data, (b) processing is illegal and the person whose personal data is processed opposes the removal of personal data requesting instead to limit their use, (c) the Administrator no longer needs personal data for processing but they are needed by the person whose personal data are processed to establish, assert or defend claims; the right to transfer data, opposition to processing, the right to withdraw consent at any time without affecting the legality of the processing, which was made on the basis of consent before its withdrawal.

8. You have the right to lodge a complaint with the President of the Office for Personal Data Protection when you feel that the processing of your personal data concerning you violates the provisions of the GDPR.

9. Providing your personal data for purposes related to the conclusion and performance of a contract pursuant to art. 6 par. 1 lit. b of the GDPR is voluntary but necessary for the performance of the contract. The fact of not providing data prevents cooperation.

10. Your data will not be processed in an automated way, including in the form of profiling, and will not be transferred to third countries without your consent.

11. In matters not regulated by this Privacy Clause, applicable law shall apply. In the event of non-compliance of the provisions of this privacy clause with the above provisions, priority shall be given to these provisions.
